

A Special Partnership: KCWA and Trout Unlimited

In 1998, TU accepted Kettle Creek as its 3rd project under its national Home Rivers Initiative. Since that time, the KCWA and TU have been working in partnership toward these four main goals:

- Develop a watershed conservation plan
- Reclaim the lower watershed through treatment of acid mine drainage
- Improve aquatic habitat throughout the watershed
- Implement a community environmental education program

This workshop is brought to you by the Kettle Creek Watershed Association and Trout Unlimited through funding provided by:

Kettle Creek Watershed Association
P.O. Box 317
Cross Fork, PA 17729

You are invited to join us for our 3rd Kettle Creek Landowner Stewardship Workshop

Saturday, April 2, 2005
Germania Hotel in Germania, PA
*Don't wait to reserve your place!
Registrations are due by Friday,
March 25th!*

Please join us on April 1, 2005 in the evening for dinner at our Annual Public Meeting. While there you will have the opportunity to see and hear about all projects we are currently working on, as well as, those already completed within the Kettle Creek watershed. Dinner will begin at 6:00p.m. at the Kettle Creek Hose Company in Cross Fork.
