Republican Tsunami Takes Governor's Office, Returns GOP To Power To State House

The voters have spoken and they gave the nod to Republican Tom Corbett for Governor and gave Republicans at least a 111 to 92 seat majority in the House, reversing the 104 to 99 Democratic majority.

These results together with the Republican Senate will give Republicans control of the Senate, House and Governor's Office for the first time since Gov. Tom Ridge was elected in 1994.

Governor's Race

In the Governor's race, Republican Tom Corbett won the office 54.5 to 45.5 percent. Democrat Dan Onorato won just three of 67 counties: Lackawanna, Montgomery and Philadelphia; not even his home county.
